Shelia Walsh and Pat Robertson introduced Ray Iddings. Ray came from a broken home, was lonely and had turned from church to alcoholism. He became more violent as time went on, beating up people with no remorse. He had often been beaten in his drunken stupor and this agitated his outlook even more. Finally, he and a drunken buddy got into it and Ray shot him. He went to prison where the hopelessness and helplessness sat in deeply. He realized he needed help and started praying the best he could. While praying, he heard three words "tell the truth". He did this at his trial and was released on lack of evidence. He is now working with alcoholics in prisons and has freedom, family, stability and a relationship with Jesus Christ.

Pastor Harold and Brenda Ray hosted an interview with Jean Caceras, Executive Director of His House Children's Home. Caceras shared with viewers how she would go to Jackson Memorial Hospital and help feed cocaine addicted babies. Caceras said that 20% of babies born at Jackson Memorial Hospital are addicted. Caceras said the Lord told her to go into the ministry and start His House Children's Home. His House is a home for drug abuse children, ages 0-6 years and for children whose parents are in a crisis situation. Caceras shows viewers pictures of His House and of the babies. Caceras lets viewers know the need and encourages people to help.

| | Pastor Harold and Brenda Ray introduces Ray Hughes, Director of Community Christian Counseling. Hughes tells of his many years of alcohol addiction and how it had controlled his life. Hughes said he has been sober for over 30 years and contributes that to a personal relationship to Jesus Christ. Hughes discussed Community Christian Counseling and how they counsel those who are substance abusers. Hughes said addiction stems from sin and rebellion, that the addiction is self inflicted and the addict is responsible for his addiction, it is not a disease. Hughes explained certain steps to recovery and how you must deal with the addiction first, then deal with the underlying problems. Hughes tells viewers, God has a recovery program for you, just trust in Him. | | | | | | |

Harold Calvin Ray welcomed guests Dr. Brian D. Udell, Director of Neonatology Newborn Intensive Care, Broward County Medical Center, Elizabeth Groves, Assistant Nursing Director, Broward County Public Health Unit, and Ruther Carter, Supervisor, Perinatal Unit of Broward Recovery Center. Dr. Udell stated there were over 6,000 births at Broward Medical Center dealing with problems at birth, mainly from substance abuse, the most common being crack, cocaine, marijuana, alcohol and cigarettes. Groves said since March 1987, they have 7 nurses that follow up on children up to the age of 5 years that are "substance exposed" children. Carter explains the purpose of "BARC" which treats addicted expectant mothers that want to get off drugs. Many have "clean" deliveries and then babies are followed up by the Health Dept. to make sure everything is maintained. Dr. Udell encourages viewers to stay off drugs, alcohol and use of cigarettes during pregnancy as a "clean" baby has a better chance in life.

| | Host, Sonny Argunizoni, introduced guest, Jo Jo Sanchez of Inner City Youth Ministries. Jo Jo relates back to his youth and being involved in drugs, eventually ending in an over-dose situation, which almost took his life. His drug addiction also led him into a life of crime. One day Jo Jo went to Victory Outreach and there gave his life to Jesus Christ. Jo Jo now ministers to the youth involved in drugs and gangs, showing them a way out of their present lifestyle into a new one, encouraging them that it can be done. | | | | | |

| | Jim McClellan, host, introduces Karen Johnson, New Life Wilderness Program, along with her guests Sherre & Smitty Dieks. Sherre is the mother of Smitty who developed a drug problem in school through peer pressure. There was a 3 week waiting period before they could enter the New Life Wilderness program. During that time there was a confrontation between Smitty and his mother which created a real difficult time for the whole family. Once into the program, Smitty again faced difficulty, out of his comfort zone and in touch with reality was not easy. The parents go through counseling as well as the kids, but separately. Smitty, now off drugs, relates to his health and well-being along with the improvement in the appearance. | | | | | |

| Drug/Alcohol Abuse Cont' | Pastor Whitman relates that when he was a child his parents often dropped him off at church. His father was an alcoholic and often at night he would lay in bed and listen to his father beating his mother and brothers. He started off smoking marijuana, then got into alcohol and drugs and later spent two terms in Chino Prison for selling drugs. One brother was killed in an auto accident and he beat his younger brother to death. This time he was sent to San Quentin where another inmate led him to the Lord. Now, 14 years later, he has remained clean, finished his education, has a family and has become an ordained minister. | | | | | | |

| | Sonny Arguinizoni talks about his guest Shelly Salmon who, along with her brother, was kidnapped by her natural father when she was 7 years old. The father, an alcoholic, remarried and Shelly became a victim of her stepmother's abuse. When she was 13 she returned to her natural mother but, being unable to deal with the past, turned to drugs and ended up in a mental institution. Shelly talks about abuse and mental illness and how anguish is kept hidden. She asks for prayer for those in need of a sound mind. | | | | | | |

Nadine lost her left leg as a result of the accident, her nose was cut off, she had a fracture in the neck and was in surgery for 11 hours. She has since had 10 operations on her leg, jaw and knee and has to have physical therapy 3 times a week. She feels she traded her leg for a guy to drink 7 to 9 beers. Nadine also states that people that drink and drive are not necessarily fall-over drunks. She encourages listeners to get the word out by contacting legislators and everyone they come in contact with about drinking and driving. | | | | | | |

His wife became very irritated with his behavior and threatened to leave him. Jessie knew she was his whole life and he had to do something to keep from losing her. One Christmas night Jessie was in a tavern trying to get drunk, but regardless how much he drank, he could not get drunk. He heard God tell him it was now or never, but he continued to drink. Finally, he went home and told his wife he was going to church and give his life to Jesus. Now, Jessie, 17 years later, is going to prison and witnessing to the inmates. | | | | | | |
